

31. JUDITH C. RIEMER is a German fine artist who follows her passionate interest in human expressions, emotional perceptions and aspects of the physical. Influenced by dance movements, her works find a common basis in the awareness of body language. Visit www.jcr-art.de or search @j.c.riemer_art on Instagram to buy or commission artworks.

32. WENDY YEO is a Hong Kong born artist who graduated from the Slade School of Fine Art. Wendy won prizes and a Travelling Scholarship and has done a range of solo shows in the UK, New York, Hong Kong, Istanbul and Kuwait and mixed international shows in Italy, Austria and Germany. Her paintings are in public collections all around the world and her work combines Chinese brushwork and "space" with Western individuality. Visit www.wendyyeo.com or email wendy@wendyyeo.com for more information.

33. LIVING FIBERS is owned by Mariana Baertl who is a Peruvian textile artist. All her pieces are meticulously hand-embroidered with natural fibers and threads. Her source of inspiration is the natural and organic world. Often influenced by "natural clusters" or closely grouped organic elements, such as feathers and vegetation. The ocean is also an important source of inspiration; the movement and forms of water, marine life and coral reefs. Visit www.livingfibersart.com and follow @livingfibers on Instagram to see more.

34. KIRSTY BLACK, a New Zealand based artist, weaves childhood memories with story lines and explosions of colour, creating a joyful world of invented narrative. Kirsty's abstract art is like visual poetry. Instead of words and sentences, she intuitively uses colour, shape, line, form, pattern to create a visual dance of the spirit. For more information, visit www.kirstyblackstudio.com or follow @kirstyblackstudio on Instagram.

35. SIMONE BOON MFA is a Dutch experimental photographer and sculptural artist. Simone creates art by body movement, colours, light and camera, flowing transitions, shapes and forms that were not possible to grasp with the bare eye. Her abstract fine art photography is exhibited worldwide, visit www.simoneboon.com or email contact@simoneboon.com for more information and commissions.

36. JULIA COX studied textiles at the Royal College of Art and is fascinated by different techniques, using a variety of mediums. The work you see here 'County Mayo Remembered' is an oil painting inspired by a trip to the West of Ireland, and they can now offer superb signed archival prints from an edition of 95. Visit www.juliacox-artist.uk or contact alisoneldred@gmail.com to find out more.

37. Award winning artist ABI JAMESON is passionately inspired by female wisdom, emotions and the natural world. Much of her unique style comes from her impaired vision. To compensate, her colours are often brighter with looser forms evocatively drawing the viewer in. Visit www.jamesonartgallery.com or email abi@jamesonartgallery.com for more information.

38. HILDEGARDE REID was born on the edge of the Kalahari desert, South Africa, but is now based in the UK. She is primarily a "colourist" and her work is influenced by her roots and she brings warmth and vibrancy into her painting where, with gay abandon, she uses colour and paint in a way that has been described as "delightfully sensual". To find out more, email hildegarde.art@gmail.com

39. JACQUELINE MIDGEN is an artist specialising in various forms of landscapes and works mainly in acrylics and pastels. She has always been interested in form, texture and colour and her main influences are the French Impressionists, Turner, Van Gogh, Gauguin, Cezanne and Georgia O'Keeffe. Jacqueline also undertakes commissions. Visit www.jacquelinemidgen.wordpress.com or email jackiemidgen@hotmail.co.uk to find out more.

40. MARI ROBESON is a California based artist, author, interior and textile designer. She has a BS in Art & Design from Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo. Her art is a marriage of her passion for creating interiors and a love of colourful, whimsical spaces. Visit MariRobesonHome.com or MariRobeson.bigcartel.com or follow @MariRDesign on Instagram.

41. "The Let's Face It" collection by CAROLINE KUSTERS is inspired by haute couture and the beauty of women. Caroline has several collections: "Ocean's Love, Inspired by Picasso and Women in Abstract". Caroline also offers workshops and art classes. View her full body of work at caropaintings.com and follow @caropaintings on Instagram and Facebook.

42. JANE BLAIR is a Scottish artist working from her studio in the hills of southern Scotland. She embraces her surroundings, delighting in not only the animals she sees everyday but also her love of the dramatic coastlines of the Western Isles. Visit www.janeblair.co.uk and follow @janeandblairs on Instagram to find out more.