

17. Staffordshire based, JESSICA LENNOX is a wildlife coloured pencil artist. Shown here is 'Walk The Line', which is part of her new African collection. All of Jessica's illustrations are drawn using professional quality coloured pencils and 100% cotton paper. Visit www.jessicalennoxart.com and @jessicalennox on Instagram to see more of her work.

18. SHARRON LATHEY is passionate about utilising the impact of colour to positively influence the viewer's emotions. Based in Gibraltar, this artist explores her love of people, culture and nature through vibrant, original paintings using sizeable canvas. Her work can be viewed in exhibitions locally. Visit www.moroccanblue.art or email sharron@moroccanblue.art and follow @moroccanblueart on Instagram.

19. SHANNON LEWIS is a Berlin-based artist whose practice centers around the demand for a pleasure space that plays with primping and polishing. Rather than an assimilation, her pieces journey to a space of satisfying self-care and artistry; they are potions and lotions crafted with therapeutic hands. Visit www.shannontamaralewis.com and Instagram @lolas_venus

20. The Let's Face It collection by CAROLINE KUSTERS is inspired by haute couture and the beauty of women. Starting in May, Caroline is offering workshops and art classes within London to get you acquainted with acrylic paintings. See more information and her full body of work at caropaintings.com

21. PATRICK EARLE is a bold colourist who explores the joy and beauty of the visual experience. This painting 'Steps and Shaded Pool' is inspired by the walk around a beautiful lake on the Island of Guernsey. Follow @patrickearle.art on Facebook or Instagram, or find out more at www.patrickearle.com

22. A promising Belfast-based artist, ZOE BAYSTING creates large-scale original acrylic and ink paintings from her home studio. The aesthetic of her work centres around an impressionistic capture of florals and foliage on the cusp of season change. Inspired by Monet, Hemingway and peony roses, we can expect bigger things from this emerging artist. Find more at www.zoebaysting.com and Instagram @zoebaystingart

23. KATHY LEEDS' paintings render the beauty of everyday objects in a flattened, abstract, pictorial style. The elements all have a personal meaning and history, and Kathy reaches within to recapture and reinterpret both memory and form, weaving them into a magical space. Visit www.kathyleeds.com and follow on Instagram @kathyleedsart

24. CHLOE WOOD is an artist from Florida. Her artwork varies from mixed media, impressionistic coastal scenes to abstract acrylics. She is inspired by her children, experiences, music and mood. "Raspberry Lemonade II" is currently available through Well and Wonder. More of her work can be seen at www.chloewoodart.com

25. Peterborough and Toronto based artist KATHRYN LAST explores the intersection of creation and expression of material through her artwork. Centered around the implications of the duration of transient time, each piece begins with an improvised stroke to reflect a delicate balance of freedom and mindful restraint. Colour is Kathryn's primary material, which she allows to lead the direction and end result of each artwork. Visit www.kathrynlast.com and follow @kathrynlastart on Instagram.

26. SHEENA LENNOX is a self-taught artist born and raised in London. Since childhood, she has admired how the bold and beautiful colours of street art and graffiti can brighten up the most subdued spaces in the darkest parts of the city. Through a spontaneous and emotional work process, Sheena's work reflects her own unique style; ever-evolving yet distinguishable. Visit www.sheenalennox.com or contact slnx.theartist@gmail.com and follow @sheena_lennox_art on Instagram.

27. American contemporary artist RACHEL TRIBBLE presents meditative paintings that offer organic experiments of colour and light. Rachel's paintings create a bridge between the viewer and the serenity of nature mixed with modern concepts that explore the edges of magical surrealism. Featured here is a recent piece entitled 'Light'. Learn more at www.racheltribble.com and follow @the.glass.snow.studio or @racheltribbleart on Instagram.

28. Working out of her Chicago-based studio, KRISTINA SWARNER has created award-winning whimsical illustrations for books, greeting cards, magazines and more throughout her career as an artist, printmaker and illustrator. Having been exhibited internationally including at the Eric Carle Museum and the Society of Illustrators, you can view her pieces at www.kristinaswarner.com and follow her on Instagram @kristinaswarner

