1. SHARRON LATHEY is passionate about utilising the impact of colour to positively influence the viewer's emotions. Living in Gibraltar, this artist explores her love of people, culture and nature through vibrant, original paintings using sizeable canvas. Her work can be viewed in exhibitions locally. Visit www.moroccanblue.art or email sharron@moroccanblue.art and follow @moroccanblueart on Instagram.

2. KIM ROMERO is an impressionistic abstract painter, who has a unique way of interpreting warm weather, spring flowers or a summer vibe into her paintings. Using beautiful colour and texture that bring joy, promote thought and calm the mind, Kim is well known for her Hydrangea Series, featured here. Visit www.kimromero.com and follow @kimromero.abstractart on Instagram.

3. KIRSTEN SCHANKWEILER's paintings are inspired by nature. Her artworks are created in an intuitive, impulsive process guided by her emotions and experiences. To see more of her natural abstract works visit www.kirstenschankweiler.com or follow her on Instagram @kirstenschankweiler

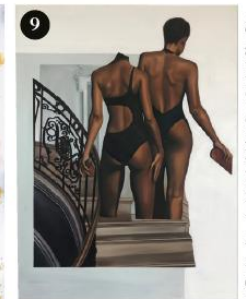

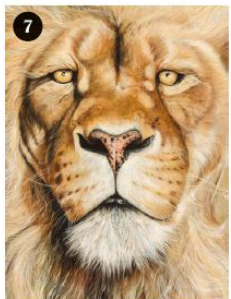

4. JAMES BREWER is a young self-taught New Zealand based artist. A maverick who paints across a broad spectrum. His artworks are large, brilliantly coloured and finely detailed. James is a popular exhibitor at the New Zealand Art Show and his artworks can be found in homes around the world. Visit www.jamesbrewerart.co.nz and @amesbrewerart on Instagram.

5. In his art project 'missiles', the Berlin-based artist SEBASTIAN SCHMIDT deals with the increasing lack of transparency of today's wars. With one-of-a-kind large and hyperrealistic 3D images, Sebastian makes the invisible accessible. Awarded at Art Dusseldorf in 2018, his latest pieces can be seen in Berlin or online at www.sebastianschmidt.art. Visit Instagram @sebastian_schmidt_art for more information.

6. SHANNON CROSS specialises in mid to large scale abstract acrylic pieces, working out of Kelowna, Canada. She exhibits in solo and private art shows as well as larger scale Home Design shows. Shannon's passion currently lies in her series showcasing transparent layers upon layers, which creates a vision of weightlessness and transparency but mostly expresses organic visual experiences that take you outdoors and into nature's arms. Visit www.shannoncrossfineart.com and Instagram @shannoncrossart

7. CAT RANDALL is a realist artist based in Bournemouth. Her paintings are a combination of classical portraiture styling with a contemporary twist. She draws her inspiration from both the beauty of nature and the truth of photography. Visit www.hangmanarts.com and @hangmanarts on Instagram.

8. The Ler's Face It collection by CAROLINE KUSTERS is inspired by haute couture and the beauty of women. Caroline has several collections: Ocean's Love, Inspired by Picasso and Women in Abstract. View her full body of work at caropaintings.com and @caropaintings on Instagram and Facebook.

9. SHANNON LEWIS is a Berlin-based artist whose practice centers around the demand for a pleasure space that plays with primping and polishing. Rather than an assimilation, her pieces journey to a space of satisfying self-care and artistry; they are potions and lotions crafted with therapeutic hands. Visit www.shanntamaralewis.com and Instagram @lolas_venus

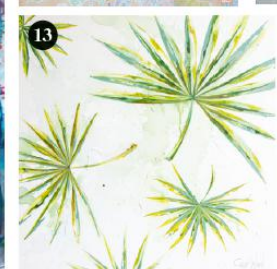

10. JUSTIN HAMMER's art aims to depict the human experience in an uplifting, relatable, and visually pleasing manner. Through his works of art, he strives to inspire others to believe in themselves and become their own greatest versions every day. Justin's works are intentional statement pieces that aim to influence others to reach higher. Visit www.justinhammerart.com and follow @justinhammerart on Instagram.

11. GABBY MALPAS challenges the centuries-old, western tradition of Chinoiserie with her own narrative. As a Chinese adoptee, raised in NZ, her cultural references range from Chinese art, to Pasifika, to pop culture. The resulting images are joyful, delicate and with stories that draw the viewer in for a closer look. Visit gabbymalpas.com and Instagram @gabbymalpas

12. SASKIA VAN DRUNEN's art captures inner beauty and fleeting emotions, all whilst leaving room for the viewer to explore their own reactions and perspectives. Expressive brushmarks, ink washes and charcoal line work are key features of her pieces. Visit www.saskiavandrunen.com and follow on Instagram @saskiavandrunen.fineart

13. CHLOE WOOD is an artist from Florida. Her artwork varies from mixed media, impressionistic coastal scenes to abstract acrylics. She is inspired by her children, experiences, music and mood. Palm Beach is currently available as a print. More of her work can be seen at www.chloewoodart.com

14. A promising Belfast-based artist, ZOE BAYSTING creates large-scale original acrylic and ink paintings from her home studio. The aesthetic of her work centres around an impressionistic capture of florals and foliage on the cusp of season change. Inspired by Monet, Hemingway and peony roses, we can expect bigger things from this emerging artist. Find more at www.zoebaysting.com and Instagram @zoebaystingart
